

FREDERICK J. ANGELONE, CPA

Fred specializes in corporate turnarounds and crisis management, with an emphasis on manufacturing financial restructuring and refinancing. With more than 30 years of business experience, and more than 20 years of experience serving in senior management positions, Mr. Angelone has most recently served as the COO/CFO of a privately held manufacturing entity that is a leading U.S. producer of powdered metal and thermo-plastic parts. He previously served as the CFO of a middle market electronic manufacturer specializing in the automotive market place.

Drawing on significant "work-out" experience, he brings more than 20 years of experience in developing and implementing appropriate strategies designed to maximize corporate value for underperforming and distressed companies. He has advised and assisted a company in its successful financial restructuring and directed the successful sale and liquidation of a tier one automotive supplier. In addition, he has significant bankruptcy experience from both the Debtor and Creditor perspective, having successfully reorganized a number of privately and publicly held companies

Fred is a Certified Public Accountant in the State of Connecticut, holds a MBA from the University of Hartford and BS in Accounting from the University of New Haven. He is currently active on a number of for profit and non-profit boards in the New Haven area.
